

Edgewords

Creative writing at The Edge Café, Cambridge

Call for submissions

Following the success of the Edgewords anthology, we are inviting submissions for Edgewords: Renewal to be launched at The Edge Café in December 2018. We are looking for short pieces – fiction, life writing or poetry – on the theme of RENEWAL. All proceeds from the anthology will go towards The Edge Café's work, supporting people in recovery from addiction.

Submission Guidelines

- Open to all writers over the age of 16.
- The theme is RENEWAL, maximum of 300 words for prose, or 30 lines for poetry.
- Submissions should be typed on A4 paper.
- Please put your name on the form NOT on your submission. This will ensure that our selection process remains impartial.
- We can't return your submission, so please don't send us your only copy.
- We will announce our final selection on The Edge website on Wednesday 31 October 2018:
<http://theedgecafecambridge.org/edgewords>
- All entrants will be invited to the launch event in December.
- Fill in the form below and hand it in, with your submission, to Andy Ahmad-Cooke at The Edge Café. Alternatively, you can download a form from <http://theedgecafecambridge.org/edgewords> and email it with your submission to andy@theedgecafecambridge.com.
- The deadline for submissions is midday on Wednesday 19 September 2018.

About you
Name
Email address
Please write a short biography of yourself (max 70 words)
About your submission
Title
Word count

Please tick if you would like to join The Edge Café mailing list (your personal details will not be passed on to any 3rd party)